AFFIDAVIT

I, Gary A. Jongeward, state as follows:

1. I am Vice President and Division Manager of Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC), and control the information described in Paragraph (2) which is sought to be withheld, and am authorized to apply for this withholding.
2. The information to be withheld is the content of the RAI response from SAIC to U.S. NRC dated August 14, 2013 (Mail Control No. 580359). SAIC is the sole owner of this information and this information is not available from any other public sources.
3. In making this application for withholding of proprietary information of which it is the owner, SAIC relies upon the exemption from disclosure set forth in the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") and Trade Secrets Act, and the NRC Regulations 10CFR§9.17(a)(4), and §2.390(a)(4) for "Trade Secrets, Commercial, Proprietary/Privileged and Confidential Information."
4. Some Examples of information which fit in the definition of proprietary/privileged and confidential information are:
 - a. Information that discloses confidential information between SAIC and our customers in the design and use of the device. This information is considered proprietary between SAIC and its customers and is otherwise not publically available.
 - b. Information that would allow a competitor to understand our supply chain, detector techniques and geometry, and the mechanical actuation, or security techniques used to secure unit.

If the information identified in 4a and 4b above were used by competitors, it would reduce their expenditure of resources or improve their competitive position in the design, manufacture, sales, shipment, and licensing of a similar product. The information sought to be withheld is considered to be proprietary to third parties.

5. To address 10CFR§2.390(b)(4), the information sought to be withheld is being submitted to the NRC in confidence. The information is customarily held in confidence by SAIC, is not available to the public or disclosed to third parties.

I declare that the foregoing affidavit and the information stated therein are true and correct the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

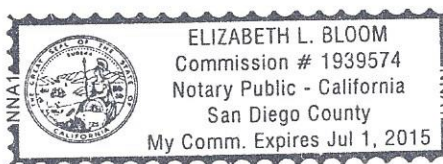

Executed on this 26th day of August, 2013.
