This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. Pursuant to my letter dated May 29, 2013, you were advised that material had been referred to another NRC office and one licensee. The information noted as referred to another NRC office has actually been processed and was included in the May 29, 2013 release. The information referred to a licensee was referred to the TVA, also a government agency. TVA has advised that they will review the information and provide the results of their review directly to you. Therefore, this concludes the NRC's processing of your request, and this matter is being closed.
