Dear Mr. Beanblossom:

It has come to our attention that Amendment No. 06 to your NRC license no. 24-32434-01, issued on June 19, 2013, contained errors.

Condition No. 13, as it appeared on Amendment No. 05, was deleted from your license on Amendment No. 06, as it no longer applied to your program.

Condition Nos. 14 and 15 should have then been changed to 13 and 14. However, they were not. This corrected copy, enclosed, reflects the correct sequential numbering of your license conditions, in bold font.

We apologize for these errors and for any inconvenience they may have caused you.

NRC's Regulatory Issue Summary (RIS) 2005-31 provides criteria to identify security-related sensitive information and guidance for handling and marking of such documents. This ensures that potentially sensitive information is not made publicly available through ADAMS, the NRC's electronic document system.

Pursuant to NRC's RIS 2005-31 and in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390, the enclosed license document is exempt from public disclosure because its disclosure to unauthorized individuals could present a security vulnerability.

The RIS may be located on the NRC Web site at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/gen-comm/reg-issues/2005/ri200531.pdf> and the link for frequently asked questions regarding protection of security related sensitive information may be located at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/sensitive-info/faq.html>.

A copy of this letter will be available electronically for public inspection in the NRC Public Document Room or from the Publicly Available Records (PARS) component of NRC's document system (ADAMS).

The enclosed document contains sensitive security-related information.
When separated from this cover letter this letter is uncontrolled.

Mark Beanblossom

The NRC's document system is accessible from the NRC Web site at
