Allison McFarlane

Dear McFarlane,

My name is Lavern Wilson. My letter is for road safety. Although my state may not be a state within routes holding shipments of radioactive waste it is my concern because it would only be fair to the people who may find themselves without knowledge of your operations planning. Not all people have the knowledge of nuclear operations as I do and some do not even know anything regarding protest and activist activities that bring awareness to operations that cause harm to the environment. I am not here to ask you anything but to consider reviewing the options of your storing and transporting. Since you have obligations it would only be fair that you have that opportunity to continue but to transport in any unsafe or risk taking that puts people in harms way should be a discussion with state and federal officials that they assist you with funding of a route that will not be shared. In the event there is an accident that would be covered and followed through a set of regulations that you may be capable of handling and avoiding a threat to the public.

Safe Routes for our Children

LM Wilson

Sincerely,

Lavern Wilson
