Public Comment Re: Docket ID No. NRC-2012-0246, WC DGEIS, NUREG-2157

Dec. 20, 2013

Dear NRC Nuclear Waste Confidence Directorate,

At the November 14, 2013 NRC HQ Waste Confidence Draft Generic Environmental Impact Statement (WC DGEIS) public comment meeting in Rockville, Maryland, I indicated during my oral comment submission that I would submit for the record a copy of the "Déjà vu...all over again!" Lucy (NRC) and Charlie Brown (the public) cartoon. It is attached.

But while I am at it, I would like to attach three related placards. All four were generated by Nuclear Energy Information Service of Chicago for use at the Oak Park, IL public comment meeting on Nov. 12th. When members of the public heard the words "Waste Confidence," "safe," "safely store," etc., uttered, they held up the placards. In this sense, this was a version of the game "Nuclear Bingo," as has been "played" by the public at various NRC meetings in the past. If the NRC insists on playing Nuke Waste Con Games, then the public can respond with games of its own! Just for sanity's sake, if nothing else.

The three Nuke Waste Con Game additional nuclear bingo placards attached here are: "NRC: Putting the CON in was CON-fidence"; "What part of NO [in many languages] does NRC NOT understand?"; and "NO confidence in NRC's Waste Confidence."

Thank you.

Sincerely,
