

question had the wrong SSN, took 11 days to receive and the sample was not divided in my presence as it normally is. I gave the MRO permission to please send the sample for further testing to begin the appeal process. My concern is that the sample in question may be compromised and/or is not mine.

Any assistance or advise would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks in advance for your time!

William H. Tindel III