RESPONSE TO FI	REEDOM OF INFORMATION	2011-/2012-	FEB 2 8 2014
PART II.A APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS
EM Exemption I	bject to the request that are described in the enclo No.(s) of the PA and/or the FOIA as indicated belo	ow (5 U.S.C. 552a and/or 5 U.S
Exemption 1: The withh	Exemption 1: The withheld information is properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 12958.
Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.
Exemption 3: The withh	Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated.
Sections 141-145 2161-2165).	Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C.
	Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure	e of Unclassified Safeguards In	formation (42 U.S.C. 2167).
41 U.S.C., Section 4702(b), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
Exemption 4: The with	neld information is a trade secret or commercial o	r financial information that is be	ing withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
	considered to be confidential business (proprieta

	rm an identifiable private or governmental interest		able through discourse during litization held information consists of interagency or intraag le privileges:	gency records that are not avail	able through discovery during litigation.
Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.
Attorney work-pro	duct privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorr	ney in contemplation of litigation	ו)
Attorney-client priv	vilege. (Confidential communications between an	attorney and his/her client)
Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
(A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of NRC requirements from investigators).
 (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reveal identities of confidential sources.
