Jan,

Thanks again for the comments. GmP appreciates the NRC's input and will continue it's consideration of these comments.

Based on the short amount of time we've had to look at this, we feel this morning's planned meeting will not be a useful discussion. We'd like to delay this a couple of weeks to fully understand these comments in the context of the revision and then schedule a discussion if needed.

Sorry for the short notice and we'll let you know when we're ready to discuss.

Best regards,

Thx Jan! I've passed on the Mike Sontag to take a look at relative to today's call.

Based on the re-planning effort here, I was expecting a simple conversation of getting the comments before we submit. If Mike and his team need more time for feedback or clarity, we'll reschedule the call or plan a meeting to ensure effective communication.

Best regards,
