NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Fermi 2 License Renewal

- Fermi 2 License Renewal Application Received on April 30, 2014

The current license expires on March 20, 2025

5

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

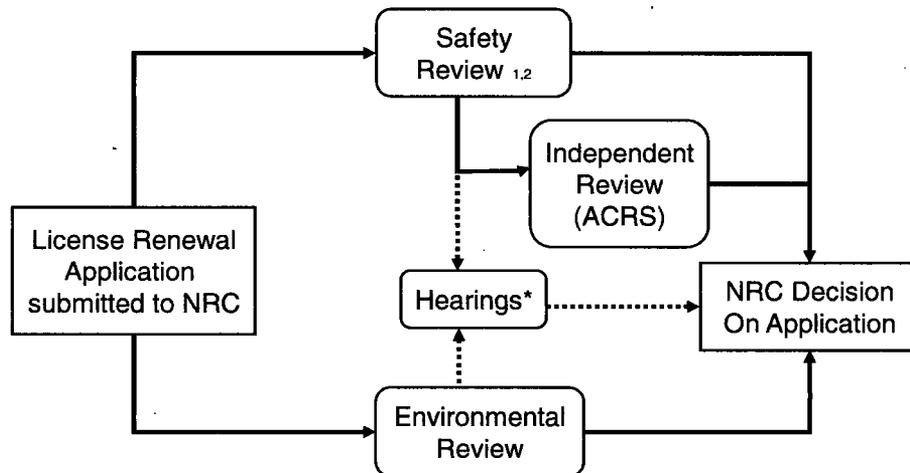

Contents of Application

- General information about the plant owner or operator
- Technical information about plant structures and components and how the applicant proposes to manage plant aging
- Environmental Report

6

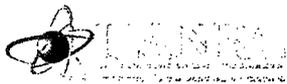

License Renewal Process

* If a Request for Hearing is Granted

1. In the Safety Review, the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards (ACRS) conducts an independent review of the application
2. Findings from NRC region-based inspectors are used to inform the safety review

7

License Renewal Safety Principles

- The regulatory process, continued into the extended period of operation, is adequate to ensure that the current licensing basis of all currently operating plants provides an acceptable level of safety, with the possible exception of the detrimental effects of aging on certain systems, structures, and components, and possibly a few other issues related to safety only during the period of extended operation, and
- Each plant's current licensing basis is required to be maintained during the renewal term.

8

Safety Review Focus

- Safety review focus is on the effects of aging on:
 - Safety-related systems, structures, and components (SSCs)
 - Non-safety related SSCs which, if they failed, could affect safety-related SSC functions
 - SSCs relied upon for compliance with regulations
- Safety review is to determine if aging effects will be effectively managed

9

Safety Review Process

- Technical review by NRC staff
 - Review application and supporting documentation
 - On-site audits
 - Issue Safety Evaluation Report
- On-site inspections by NRC staff
- Independent review by the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards
