Attachment B – Program Description

1. Background

Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) is one of the nation's top urban research universities and has a diverse student population that includes large numbers of traditionally under-represented minorities and women. VCU also has a large numbers of non-traditional students and transfer students seeking to expand AS degrees into BS and even MS and PhD degrees.

VCU initiated new graduate and undergraduate programs in nuclear engineering (NE) in direct response to the growing demand for nuclear engineers in the nuclear power industry, national laboratories and the federal government. In January, 2009 the State Council of Higher Education in Virginia (SCHEV) approved a new MS degree program in Mechanical and Nuclear Engineering (MNE) at VCU. The first MS class graduated in December 2010, and to date, VCU has a total of 44 graduates with a MS in MNE. In September 2012, VCU's new PhD degree in MNE was approved by SCHEV, and the first students enrolled in January 2013. This hybrid degree is the first of its kind in the United States. In the fall of 2009, the first class of students was enrolled in a new undergraduate NE option within the Mechanical Engineering (ME) BS program. The first undergraduate class graduated in May 2012, and a total of 28 students have completed the program to date. In 2013, VCU earned ABET accreditation for the NE Option in the ME B.S. program in addition to reaccreditation of the original ME program. Approximately 62 students (sophomore-level and above) are currently enrolled in the undergraduate NE option and ~60 graduate students are enrolled in the new MNE MS and PhD programs. Steady enrollment growth in both the undergraduate and graduate programs has been observed, with a total projected steady-state enrollment of 200 students (100 undergraduate and 100 graduate).

VCU has made a long-term commitment to NE education and research. Our ambition is to be a leading provider of NE education in Virginia. VCU is currently the only university in Virginia to offer an accredited undergraduate degree that includes NE, and the only university in the nation to offer hybrid MS and PhD degrees in Mechanical and Nuclear Engineering. The MNE Department has five full-time NE faculty and expects to add a sixth faculty member next year.

2. Scholarship Program Description

The proposed VCU NE Undergraduate Scholarship program is specifically designed to help attract and retain promising students into NE careers. The first step towards this goal is the recruitment of talented students into VCU's NE option within the BS in ME program. Given VCU's historical student demographics and its unique situation as an urban university, the program is expected to attract an above average population of traditionally underrepresented minorities and female students. The second component of the scholarship program involves facilitating students' future success in a career in the US nuclear industry through a solid NE education and relevant internship, co-op and full-time job opportunities in the nuclear industry during their studies and after graduation. In this respect, VCU's NE program is in a privileged position because of its close proximity to a large contingent of world-class nuclear companies (Dominion Generation, AREVA, B&W, Newport News Shipbuilding, Mitsubishi, etc.) and its strong tradition of close collaboration with these local nuclear industry stakeholders. Two additional features of VCU's BS NE Option make this proposal unique. First, given the origin of VCU's NE program and VCU's intimate relationship with the local nuclear companies, VCU's NE program is particularly attuned to the real needs of the industry and strives to provide its graduates with skills that will make them particularly marketable to the nuclear industry. Also,

VCU's undergraduate NE Option requires all students to complete a 300-hour internship or co-op, which provides strong motivation for students to seek opportunities in the nuclear industry.

The proposed scholarship program will provide nine $10,000 scholarships each year for two years to undergraduate students enrolled in the NE Option, which includes eight NE courses beyond the traditional ME curriculum and is ABET accredited for both the NE and ME program criteria. The scholarships will provide additional incentive for students to choose the NE option.

Furthermore, many VCU MNE students work part-time while enrolled as full-time students, and the scholarships will provide financial assistance that will enable the students to focus more time on their academics, instead of on part-time jobs necessary to earn money for tuition, childcare, or room and board. Focusing on their NE coursework will allow these students to build a more solid engineering foundation that will better prepare them for NE careers. The School of Engineering is in the process of formalizing a new co-op program to complement the existing internship program, thus providing NE students with the opportunity to fulfill their internship requirement with a co-op instead. While co-ops and internships provide valuable real-world experience, they can create challenges for students that are already working to support themselves and their families. These students must often quit their part-time jobs to relocate for an internship, and a new part-time job that fits their class schedule may not be available when they return to school, thus creating a financial challenge for completing the program. This scholarship program may give some students the freedom to choose a co-op or internship opportunity that might otherwise have been beyond their means.

Finally, in addition to the internship/co-op program that is required for all MNE undergraduates, the required NRC service agreement will ensure that scholarship recipients receive practical NE experience and an opportunity to jump-start their career in the US nuclear industry.

3. Recruitment and Marketing Strategies

The objective of the Recruitment and Marketing Strategies will be to encourage promising students to enroll/switch into the NE option and apply for one of the nine NRC-sponsored undergraduate scholarships offered each year. The scholarship application/marketing materials would be developed so that they emphasize the potential job opportunities in the nuclear industry, as well as the importance of these jobs for energy security and national security. These materials will also describe the various areas within nuclear science and technology and how people working on those areas can make a difference.

The first pool of potential applicants will be VCU engineering students. This is a diverse population that includes traditionally underrepresented minorities, women, non-traditional students and transfer students. For example, the fall 2012 sophomore-level Introduction to NE course taken by students that were considering or had decided to pursue the NE option had 27 students enrolled, of which 13 (48%) were women or minorities and 11 (41%) had at least 25 transfer credits. Furthermore, 19 (70%) of these students had a GPA that would have made them eligible for the proposed scholarships.

We anticipate a large pool of quality applicants because ME is the largest engineering major at VCU with 510+ students, including 138 students enrolled in the Introduction to Engineering class in fall 2013. These students will choose whether to pursue the NE option at the end of their freshman year. Furthermore, there are typically several freshmen that do not declare a major until after their first semester (48 students in 2012), and it is relatively easy to switch engineering majors during the freshman year because many of the required courses are common. In order to reach the ME and undeclared engineering students, the scholarship application/marketing materials will be made visible and available as a hard copy throughout the School of Engineering, electronically on the School website and social media sites, and through the Career Services information e-mails. VCU NE faculty and selected students will make presentations in freshmen courses, such as Introduction to Engineering, to let students know about the scholarships and the future of a career in nuclear engineering.

A second pool of potential applicants will be students from area community colleges that are seeking to transfer to a 4-year university and/or to expand AS degrees into BS degrees. Scholarship application/marketing materials will be posted at these schools and sent electronically to faculty advisors at these schools for distribution. Whenever possible, VCU NE faculty and selected students will attend career fairs at these institutions to let students know about the VCU NE program, the scholarships and the future of a career in nuclear engineering.

A third pool of potential applicants will be military personnel trying to make a successful transition into a new career. VCU, due to its location, is proud to have a large population of veterans, active service members, dependents and spouses, many of whom may be interested and well-suited for a career in NE. Information about VCU's NE program and the scholarships will be made available to these students through VCU Military Student Services, and when possible VCU NE faculty and selected students will attend career fairs and information sessions.

4. Scholarship Selection Process

4.1 Application Form and Timeline

The current scholarship application for continuing VCU School of Engineering students will be adapted to fit this program. The application will include, major, credits earned, overall GPA, major GPA, academic transcript, and descriptions of the student's interest in nuclear engineering, participation in student organizations, undergraduate research, internships completed, and financial need. Applications will be collected in April and reviewed in early May when spring grades are available to confirm applicant eligibility. Awardees will be notified in May and scholarships will be awarded prior to the beginning of the fall semester in August.

4.2 Scholarship Selection Committee

The five-person scholarship selection committee will be led by the PI who is the Director of Undergraduate Studies. The committee will also include the Director of NE Programs, NE faculty members and representation from women and minorities. If possible, faculty that have recently taught Introduction to Engineering and/or Introduction to NE courses will be included because they will likely be familiar with the abilities and work habits of many applicants.

4.3 Selection Process

Applicants must meet the following criteria to be eligible to receive a scholarship:

1. Have at the time of application, and maintain a 3.0 GPA (4.0 scale) overall and within major.
2. Maintain a load of at least 12 credit hours/semester or be classified as a full-time student.
3. Be matriculated in a baccalaureate degree program in a nuclear or nuclear-related area.

Once the application period is closed, the PI will review all applications to verify that they meet the requirements listed above. Eligible applications will be shared with all selection committee members. The committee will review and rank each application and select the nine scholarship winners. The selection will be based on merit in the areas of academic achievement, research involvement, internship experience, and participation and leadership in professional or scientific student organizations such as the American Nuclear Society. Consideration will be given to the financial need of the applicants. The overall objective will be to select the students most likely to successfully complete their NE education and to pursue a career in the US nuclear industry.

4.4. Awards

The nine recipients will be presented with awards at a ceremony. Funds will be used at the discretion of the recipient for costs such as books, tuition, and housing. Recipients will receive funding on a per semester basis ($5K in fall and $5K in spring) and continued funding will depend on the student maintaining eligibility requirements. Awards will be publicized in the Richmond area and in the nuclear community, which is expected to help with marketing for the second year of scholarships.

4.5 Management Structure

The VCU School of Engineering Director of Finance manages and awards a number of other scholarships, and the existing infrastructure and administrative processes currently in place are adequate to manage the VCU NE Undergraduate Scholarships Program as discussed herein. The PI has experience serving on three other scholarship committees.

5. Evaluation plan

As Director of Undergraduate Studies for the MNE Department, the PI has access to student and alumni data that will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of the program in attracting, preparing and retaining individuals in nuclear careers.

5.1 Attracting individuals to careers in nuclear engineering

The measures used to gauge the effectiveness of the scholarship program at attracting individuals to nuclear careers will include:

- Survey of scholarship applicants inquiring whether the scholarship program affected their decision to enroll in the NE option. This would directly measure the effect of the scholarship program on attracting students to nuclear engineering studies.
- Number of students working toward and completing the NE option – an increase would indicate a potential positive outcome from the scholarship program.
- Percentage of ME students working toward and completing the NE option – an increase would indicate a potential positive outcome from the scholarship program.

5.2 Preparing individuals to nuclear careers

The measures used to gauge the effectiveness of the scholarship program at preparing individuals for nuclear careers will include:

- Survey the scholarship recipients annually inquiring whether the scholarship program allowed them to spend more time on academics. This would directly measure the effect of the scholarship program to better prepare recipients for nuclear careers.
- Recipient GPA – an increase in GPA could indicate greater interest in the NE program and/or that recipients are performing better because the scholarship enabled them to have more time for academics.
- Comparison of the time required for recipients to complete their degree with that of non-recipients – a decrease could indicate that the scholarship enabled recipients to have more time for academics, allowing them to complete their degrees faster.
- Retention in the NE option and the number of students completing the option – increases would indicate that more individuals are being prepared for nuclear careers.
- Internship employer surveys, which are completed each year and indicate how well VCU NE students are prepared to be nuclear engineers.

5.3 Retaining individuals in nuclear careers

The measures used to gauge the effectiveness of the scholarship program at retaining individuals in nuclear careers will include:

- Retention in the NE option and the number of students completing the option – increases would indicate that more individuals intend to pursue NE careers.
- Survey scholarship recipients annually to ask if they still intend to pursue a nuclear career.
- Number and percentage of students completing their required internship in a position that specifically involves NE as opposed to ME or another area.

5.4 Reporting to NRC

The results of the assessments described in the previous three sections will be reported to the NRC on an annual schedule, or more frequently if required by the NRC.

6. Schedule of Tuition and Fees

Tuition schedule for 2013-2014 has been provided with the application.

7. Partnerships

Strategic partnerships have been formed with key stakeholders such as Dominion Generation, Newport News Shipbuilding and the Virginia Section of the American Nuclear Society (VA-ANS). Dominion has been a strong supporter of VCU's NE program from its origin and provided some of the initial seed funding used to jump start the program. Newport News Shipbuilding is also a very strong partner for VCU's NE program, having provided significant in-kind equipment donations as well as annual undergraduate scholarships for outstanding MNE students. The VCU student section of the ANS was chartered in 2011 and has remained extremely active since, offering professional development and outreach opportunities to VCU NE students. VCU plans to continue hosting the annual VA-ANS four day summer workshop for middle/high school science teachers and the annual Boy Scout Nuclear Science Merit Badge workshop.

VCU has a nine-member NE Advisory Board that meets once per year to review and advise on both the graduate and undergraduate NE programs. Currently Board membership includes: Dominion Generation, AREVA, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, GE-Hitachi, Newport News Shipbuilding, Oak Ridge National Laboratory and the University of Tennessee. Thus, VCU has many partners that are fully committed to building and sustaining the VCU NE programs.

8. Leveraged Funding

VCU does not have any arrangements with non-Federal entities to provide leveraged funding to support the specific goals of this scholarship program, i.e. to specifically support NE students.

9. Service Agreement

The PI will notify applicants in writing that each scholarship recipient is required to serve six months in nuclear-related employment for each full or partial year of academic support. Applicants will be informed that the employment may be with NRC, other Federal agencies, State agencies, Department of Energy laboratories, nuclear-related industry, or academia in the recipients sponsored fields of study. Scholarship recipients will also be notified that if they fail to satisfy the service agreement requirements of the program then they must reimburse the United States Government for the entire amount of the assistance provided to them under the scholarship plus interest at a rate determined by the NRC.

Recipients will be required to continue to comply with eligibility requirements, and VCU will continue to comply with public policy requirements and maintain adequate management systems throughout the period of support. Scholarship recipients will be required to demonstrate satisfactory academic progress in the NE option or they will be ineligible for additional funding through this program.

VCU will not impose additional requirements to scholarship recipients beyond the NRC Service Agreement. Most importantly, each scholarship recipient, the Program Coordinator/PI and the NRC will sign the service agreement before he/she is given support.

Any inconsistency or conflict in terms and conditions specified in the award will be resolved according to the following order of precedence: public laws, regulations, applicable notices published in the Federal Register, Executive Orders (EOs), Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circulars, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's (NRC) Mandatory Standard Provisions, special award conditions, and standard award conditions.

Certifications and Representations: These terms incorporate the certifications and representations required by statute, executive order, or regulation that were submitted with the SF424B application through Grants.gov.

I. Mandatory General Requirements

The order of these requirements does not make one requirement more important than any other requirement.

1. Applicability of 2 CFR Part 215

a. All provisions of 2 CFR Part 215 and all Standard Provisions attached to this grant/cooperative agreement are applicable to the Grantee and to sub-recipients which meet the definition of "Grantee" in Part 215, unless a section specifically excludes a sub-recipient from coverage. The Grantee and any sub-recipients must, in addition to the assurances made as part of the application, comply and require each of its sub-awardees employed in the completion of the project to comply with Subpart C of 2 CFR 215 and include this term in lower-tier (subaward) covered transactions.

2. Award Package

§ 215.41 Grantee responsibilities.

The Grantee is obligated to conduct such project oversight as may be appropriate, to manage the funds with prudence, and to comply with the provisions outlined in 2 CFR 215.41. Within this framework, the Principal Investigator (PI) named on the award face page, Block 11, is responsible for the scientific or technical direction of the project and for preparation of the project performance reports. This award is funded on a cost reimbursement basis not to exceed the amount awarded as indicated on the face page, Block 16 and is subject to a refund of unexpended funds to NRC.

The standards contained in this section do not relieve the Grantee of the contractual responsibilities arising under its contract(s). The Grantee is the responsible authority, without recourse to the NRC, regarding the settlement and satisfaction of all contractual and administrative issues arising out of procurements entered into in support of an award or other agreement. This includes disputes, claims, protests of award, source evaluation or other matters of a contractual nature. Matters concerning violation of statute are to be referred to such Federal, State or local authority as may have proper jurisdiction.

Subgrants

Appendix A to Part 215—Contract Provisions

Sub-recipients, sub-awardees, and contractors have no relationship with NRC under the terms of this grant/cooperative agreement. All required NRC approvals must be directed through the Grantee to NRC. See 2 CFR 215 and 215.41.

Nondiscrimination

This provision is applicable when work under the grant/cooperative agreement is performed in the U.S. or when employees are recruited in the U.S.

The Grantee agrees to comply with the non-discrimination requirements below:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 USC §§ 2000d et seq)
- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 USC §§ 1681 et seq)
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 USC § 794)
- The Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended (42 USC §§ 6101 et seq)
- The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 USC §§ 12101 et seq)
- Parts II and III of EO 11246 as amended by EO 11375 and 12086.
- EO 13166, "Improving Access to Services for Persons with Limited English Proficiency."
- Any other applicable non-discrimination law(s).

Generally, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 USC § 2000e et seq, provides that it shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discharge any individual or otherwise to discriminate against an individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. However, Title VI, 42 USC § 2000e-1(a), expressly exempts from the prohibition against discrimination on the basis of religion, a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities.

Modifications/Prior Approval

NRC's prior written approval may be required before a Grantee makes certain budget modifications or undertakes particular activities. If NRC approval is required for changes in the grant or cooperative agreement, it must be requested of, and obtained from, the NRC Grants Officer in advance of the change or obligation of funds. All requests for NRC prior approval should be made, in writing (which includes submission by e-mail), to the designated Grants Specialist and Program Office no later than 30 days before the proposed change. The request must be signed by both the PI and the authorized organizational official. Failure to obtain prior approval, when required, from the NRC Grants Officer may result in the disallowance of costs, or other enforcement action within NRC's authority.

Lobbying Restrictions

The Grantee will comply, as applicable, with provisions of the Hatch Act (5 U.S.C. §§1501-1508 and 7324-7328) which limit the political activities of employees whose principal employment activities are funded in whole or in part with Federal funds.

The Grantee shall comply with provisions of 31 USC § 1352. This provision generally prohibits the use of Federal funds for lobbying in the Executive or Legislative Branches of the Federal Government in connection with the award, and requires disclosure of the use of non-Federal funds for lobbying.

The Grantee receiving in excess of $100,000 in Federal funding shall submit a completed Standard Form (SF) LLL, "Disclosure of Lobbying Activities," regarding the use of non-Federal funds for lobbying within 30 days following the end of the calendar quarter in which there occurs any event that requires disclosure or that materially affects the accuracy of the information contained in any disclosure form previously filed. The Grantee must submit the SF-LLL, including those received from sub-recipients, contractors, and subcontractors, to the Grants Officer.

Debarment And Suspension 2 CFR 215.13

Inventions Report

The Bayh-Dole Act (P.L. 96-517) affords Grantees the right to elect and retain title to inventions they develop with funding under an NRC grant award ("subject inventions"). In accepting an award, the Grantee agrees to comply with applicable NRC policies, the Bayh-Dole Act, and its Government-wide implementing regulations found at Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 401. A significant part of the regulations require that the Grantee report all subject inventions to the awarding agency (NRC) as well as include an acknowledgement of federal support in any patents. NRC participates in the trans-government Interagency Edison system (<http://www.iedison.gov>) and expects NRC funding Grantees to use this system to comply with Bayh-Dole and related intellectual property reporting requirements. The system allows for Grantees to submit reports electronically via the Internet. In addition, the invention must be reported in continuation applications (competing or non-competing).

Patent Notification Procedures

Pursuant to EO 12889, NRC is required to notify the owner of any valid patent covering technology whenever the NRC or its financial assistance Grantees, without making a patent search, knows (or has demonstrable reasonable grounds to know) that technology covered by a valid United States patent has been or will be used without a license from the owner. To ensure proper notification, if the Grantee uses or has used patented technology under this award without license or permission from the owner, the Grantee must notify the Grants Officer. This notice does not necessarily mean that the Government authorizes and consents to any copyright or patent infringement occurring under the financial assistance.

Data, Databases, and Software

The rights to any work produced or purchased under a NRC federal financial assistance award are determined by 2 CFR 215.36. Such works may include data, databases or software. The Grantee owns any work produced or purchased under a NRC federal financial assistance award subject to NRC's right to obtain, reproduce, publish or otherwise use the work or authorize others to receive, reproduce, publish or otherwise use the data for Government purposes.

The Grantee may copyright any work produced under a NRC federal financial assistance award subject to NRC's royalty-free nonexclusive and irrevocable right to reproduce, publish or otherwise use the work or authorize others to do so for Government purposes. Works jointly authored by NRC and Grantee employees may be copyrighted but only the part authored by the Grantee is protected because, under 17 USC § 105, works produced by Government employees are not copyrightable in the United States. On occasion, NRC may ask the Grantee to transfer to NRC its copyright in a particular work when NRC is undertaking the primary dissemination of the work. Ownership of copyright by the Government through assignment is permitted under 17 USC § 105.

Records Retention and Access Requirements

For records of the Grantee shall follow established provisions in 2 CFR 215.53.

Organizational Prior Approval System

In order to carry out its responsibilities for monitoring project performance and for adhering to award terms and conditions, each Grantee organization shall have a system to ensure that appropriate authorized officials provide necessary organizational reviews and approvals in advance of any action that would result in either the performance or modification of an NRC supported activity where prior approvals are required, including the obligation or expenditure of funds where the governing cost principles either prescribe conditions or require approvals.

The Grantee shall designate an appropriate official or officials to review and approve the actions requiring NRC prior approval. Preferably, the authorized official(s) should be the same official(s) who sign(s) or countersign(s) those types of requests that require prior approval by NRC. The authorized organization official(s) shall not be the principal investigator or any official having direct responsibility for the actual conduct of the project, or a subordinate of such individual.

- d. Pending resolution of the request for review, the NRC may withhold or defer payments under the award during the review proceedings.
- e. The review committee will request the Grants Officer who issued the notice of termination or adverse action to provide copies of all relevant background materials and documents. The committee may, at its discretion, invite representatives of the Grantee and the NRC program office to discuss pertinent issues and to submit such additional information as it deems appropriate.  - a. Response is the number of students, for this reporting period and cumulative to the grant.

Unsatisfactory Performance

Failure to perform the work in accordance with the terms of the award and maintain at least a satisfactory performance rating or equivalent evaluation may result in designation of the Grantee as high risk and assignment of special award conditions or other further action as specified in the standard term and condition entitled "Termination."

Failure to comply with any or all of the provisions of the award may have a negative impact on future funding by NRC and may be considered grounds for any or all of the following actions: establishment of an accounts receivable, withholding of payments under any NRC award, changing the method of payment from advance to reimbursement only, or the imposition of other special award conditions, suspension of any NRC active awards, and termination of any NRC award.

Other Federal Awards With Similar Programmatic Activities

The Grantee shall immediately provide written notification to the NRC Project Officer and the Grants Officer in the event that, subsequent to receipt of the NRC award, other financial assistance is received to support or fund any portion of the program description incorporated into the NRC award. NRC will not pay for costs that are funded by other sources.

Prohibition Against Assignment By The Grantee

The NRC, through authorized representatives, has the right, at all reasonable times, to make site visits to review project accomplishments and management control systems and to provide such technical assistance as may be required. If any site visit is made by the NRC on the premises of the Grantee or contractor under an award, the Grantee shall provide and shall require his/her contractors to provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of the Government representative in the performance of their duties. All site visits and evaluations shall be performed in such a manner as will not unduly delay the work.

IV. Miscellaneous Requirements

Criminal and Prohibited Activities

- a. The Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act (31 USC §§ 3801-3812), provides for the imposition of civil penalties against persons who make false, fictitious, or fraudulent claims to the Federal government for money (including money representing grant/cooperative agreements, loans, or other benefits.)

American-Made Equipment And Products

Grantees are hereby notified that they are encouraged, to the greatest extent practicable, to purchase American-made equipment and products with funding provided under this award.

Increasing Seat Belt Use in the United States

Pursuant to EO 13043, Grantees should encourage employees and contractors to enforce on-the-job seat belt policies and programs when operating company-owned, rented or personally-owned vehicle.

Pursuant to EO 13513, Grantees should encourage employees, sub-awardees, and contractors to adopt and enforce policies that ban text messaging while driving company-owned, rented vehicles or privately owned vehicles when on official Government business or when performing any work for or on behalf of the Federal Government.

Federal Employee Expenses

Federal agencies are generally barred from accepting funds from a Grantee to pay transportation, travel, or other expenses for any Federal employee unless specifically approved in the terms of the award. Use of award funds (Federal or non-Federal) or the Grantee's provision of in-kind goods or services, for the purposes of transportation, travel, or any other expenses for any Federal employee may raise appropriation augmentation issues. In addition, NRC policy prohibits the acceptance of gifts, including travel payments for Federal employees, from Grantees or applicants regardless of the source.

Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) Initiative

Pursuant to EOs 13256, 13230, and 13270, NRC is strongly committed to broadening the participation of MSIs in its financial assistance program. NRC's goals include achieving full participation of MSIs in order to advance the development of human potential, strengthen the Nation's capacity to provide high-quality education, and increase opportunities for MSIs to participate in and benefit from Federal financial assistance programs. NRC encourages all applicants and Grantees to include meaningful participations of MSIs. Institutions eligible to be considered MSIs are listed on the Department of Education website:

<http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/edlite-minorityinst.html>

Research Misconduct

Scientific or research misconduct refers to the fabrication, falsification, or plagiarism in proposing, performing, or reviewing research, or in reporting research results. It does not include honest errors or differences of opinions. The Grantee organization has the primary responsibility to investigate allegations and provide reports to the Federal Government. Funds expended on an activity that is determined to be invalid or unreliable because of scientific misconduct may result in a disallowance of costs for which the institution may be liable for repayment to the awarding agency. The Office of Science and Technology Policy at the White House published in the Federal Register on December 6, 2000, a final policy that addressed research misconduct. The policy was developed by the National Science and Technology Council (65 FR 76260). The NRC requires that any allegation be submitted to the Grants Officer, who will also notify the OIG of such allegation. Generally, the Grantee organization shall investigate the allegation and submit its findings to the Grants Officer. The NRC may accept the Grantee's findings or proceed with its own investigation. The Grants Officer shall inform the Grantee of the NRC's final determination.

Publications, Videos, and Acknowledgment of Sponsorship

Publication of the results or findings of a research project in appropriate professional journals and production of video or other media is encouraged as an important method of recording and reporting scientific information. It is also a constructive means to expand access to federally funded research. The Grantee is required to submit a copy to the NRC and when releasing information related to a funded project include a statement that the project or effort undertaken was or is sponsored by the NRC. The Grantee is also responsible for assuring that every publication of material (including Internet sites and videos) based on or developed under an award, except scientific articles or papers appearing in scientific, technical or professional journals, contains the following disclaimer:

"This [report/video] was prepared by [Grantee name] under award [number] from [name of operating unit], Nuclear Regulatory Commission. The statements, findings, conclusions, and recommendations are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the [name of operating unit] or the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission."

agreement is in effect, or (ii) uses forced labor in the performance of the grant, contract, or cooperative agreement.” (22 U.S.C. § 7104(g)).
