Subject: Question Re: Freelance Piece For Fuel Cycle Week

Dear Ms.Vetti-Cook:

I'm writing an 'update' article on the U.S. SMR scene due early this week. Would you please verify when the DOE plans to select who receives the SMR Funding Opportunity money and when it will be awarded?

I read in a Grants.gov FAQ document that this will likely occur in September and late 2012 respectively. If possible, I would be grateful for a confirmation or a referral to someone else who would know. If necessary, please let me know of a good time to phone.

I would not quote you or anyone else without permission.

Thank you for any help and best regards,

Edward Levy
