Subject: Docket ID NRC-2014-0097

I read that the U.S. Army is asking to avoid responsibility for the environmental hazards they have created at the Jefferson Proving Ground. The environmental laws that protect citizens, businesses, animals and groundwater should be respected by all: citizens, businesses and the military. Unexploded ordinances should not be abandoned - that's what we see in third world and terrorist regimes. Radioactive and hazardous materials cannot be legally abandoned. I ask that the NRC require that the U.S. Army clean up the mess they have made.

Sincerely and sadly,
