Mr. David A. Lochbaum
Director, Nuclear Safety Project
Global Security Program
Union of Concerned Scientists
865 Traditions Drive
Chattanooga, TN 37415

Dear Mr. Lochbaum:

On behalf of the management and staff of the NRC Region III office, I want to thank you for your presentation at our December 2014 Inspector Counterpart Meeting. Your presence meant a great deal to us. We always appreciate hearing the perspectives of our external stakeholders such as the Union of Concerned Scientists. Your views on nuclear safety and how the NRC accomplishes its mission were especially enlightening and broadened our appreciation for the need of transparent regulatory processes. Your suggestions were as helpful as they were welcome.

Your organization and the NRC share the common goals to protect public health and safety, the environment, and defense and security of our nation. We look forward to working with your organization and other external stakeholders for the furtherance of our common goals.

We thank you again for your speech and taking time for questions.

Sincerely,

/RA/
