Related Cases:

Dear Officer,

I'm submitting a request to provide a copy of all the memorandum of understandings (MoUs) which were signed bilaterally between the governments of the U.S. and India during President Obama's most recent visit (January 2015) to India. I'm specifically interested to get ratified copy of the civil nuclear deal and defense cooperation agreements between two nations.

I request a waiver of fees associated with this request due to its potential to contribute into public knowledge. There has been a strong interest and equally ambiguous understanding among the general public of the US and India about this matter. I'm interested to write a scholarly news article regarding this matter which will help the general public to clarify any misunderstandings and promote the factual information about these bilateral and pivotal agreements.

If you have any questions, please feel free to ask me. Thank you for your time and assistance with my request.

Sincerely,
Abhijit P. Deshpande
