Hey Julie,

Thank you for the update and sorry for the late reply - I'm just getting back in the office after the holidays ☺.

These 3 actions are on "hold" until the public posting is done on 01/15/15, so I may or may not get them done before the 02/01/15 closing. But, no worries – the licensee has done their due diligence in notifying us. If there are further changes later, please let me know.

Thanks.

Bryan
