Steve

The official agency record for the meeting notices can be found in the accession numbers listed in Tony's original email.

NRC has a public meeting notice system which generates the official agency records and accession numbers for all public meeting notices.

Unfortunately, I find them difficult to read and therefore requested our admin to send a memo which I think is more easily followed.

Thanx

Alicia

FYI, you sent out the word version. Not sure if that is what you intended.

Thanks
