

(iv) within 30 days of any transfer, shall report in writing to the Agency the name and address of the person receiving the depleted uranium pursuant to such transfer; and

(v) shall not export such depleted uranium except in accordance with a license issued by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission pursuant to 10 CFR Part 110.

(5) Any person receiving, acquiring, possessing, using, or transferring depleted uranium pursuant to the general license established by C.21(e)(1) is exempt from the requirements of Parts D and J of these regulations with respect to the depleted uranium covered by that general license.

Sec. C.22 General Licenses* - Radioactive Material Other Than Source Material.

(a) Certain Devices and Equipment. A general license is hereby issued to transfer, receive, acquire, own, possess, and use radioactive material incorporated in the following devices or equipment which have been manufactured, tested and labeled by the manufacturer in accordance with a specific license issued to the manufacturer by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission for use pursuant to Section 31.3 of 10 CFR Part 31. This general license is subject to the provisions of A.4 through A.9, C.4(a)(2), C.31, C.40, C.50 and Parts D^{4/}, J, and T of these regulations.

(1) Static Elimination Device. Devices designed for use as static eliminators which contain, as a sealed source or sources, radioactive material consisting of a total of not more than 500 microcuries (18.5 MBq) of polonium-210 per device.

(2) Ion Generating Tube. Devices designed for ionization of air which contain, as a sealed source or sources, radioactive material consisting of a total of not more than 500 microcuries (18.5 MBq) of polonium-210 per device or a total of not more than 50 millicuries (1.85 GBq) of hydrogen-3 (tritium) per device.

(b) General License to Install Devices Generally Licensed in Sec. C.22.

Any person who holds a specific license issued by an Agreement State or the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission authorizing the holder to manufacture, install, or service a device described in C.22 within such Agreement State is hereby granted a general license to install and service such device in the State of Maryland as defined in C.90 provided that:

(1) [Reserved]

(2) The device has been manufactured, labeled, installed, and serviced in accordance with applicable provisions of the specific license issued to such person by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission or Agreement State.

(3) Such person assures that any labels required to be affixed to the device under regulations of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission or Agreement State that licensed manufacture of the device bear a statement that removal of the label is prohibited.

(c) Reserved.

*Note: Different general licenses are issued in this section, each of which has its own specific conditions and requirements.

^{4/} Attention is directed particularly to the provisions of Part D of these regulations which relate to the labeling of containers.
