Good afternoon,

I sent Haimanot an email earlier today but would just like to voice my dismay with regard to the time frame allowed to rsvp for the scheduled conference call. As you are aware many of our offices are small and in every case do not have adequate staff to respond to time sensitive materials. Im sure you know who you are consulting, why not send the teleconference information and if we are on the call we are. How many tribes have RSVP your invitation for consultation? I am curious to see if I am the only one who missed the "deadline"? Does this does exclude the Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate from consultation?

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Dear Tribal Historic Preservation Officers,

Attached is a follow-up letter from Kevin Hsueh, Environmental Review Branch Chief, pertaining to the ongoing Section 106 consultations for the Dewey Burdock and Crow Butte projects. NRC will also mail this follow-up letter to each Tribal President or Chair with a cc to the THPOs.

If you have any questions, please contact either Haimanot Yilma or myself.

Thank you,

Haimanot Yilma and Nathan Goodman
