HAKS Engineers PC, Materials Testing division, Bridgeport CT, NRC License # 06-31405-01 respectfully requests our license to be amended to include an increase in millicuries regarding Cesium 137 to 100 as well as Americium to 400. In addition to the requested increases we would also request our license to be amended in the authorized use section to include Humbolt 5001 series and language as found within new issue licenses regarding generic wording.

Your prompt attention to this request would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted
