Re: New Export License Application for Weatherford-Angola

Dear Deputy Director,

Weatherford International LLC (including subsidiaries and affiliate companies) requests an export license for 10 CFR §110, Appendix P, Category 2 radioactive byproduct materials including Cs-137, Am-241, Am-241/Be. These isotopes are in the form of sealed sources used for providing well logging (petroleum exploration) services by its foreign affiliate Weatherford Services Ltd to various oil & gas companies in Angola. The Am-241/Be sources may individually exceed the Appendix P threshold or when aggregated in one shipment, these sealed sources meet or exceed the "sum of fractions" threshold for Appendix P Quantities of Concern. Further details can be found on NRC Form 7.

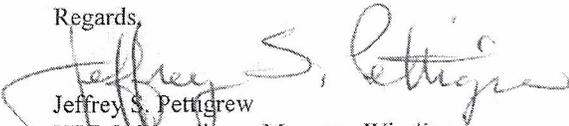

- 1) All byproduct material requiring a specific license pursuant to 10 CFR Part 110-Appendix P will be exported for use only by Weatherford's foreign affiliate and when not in use will be secured under its effective control. Intermediate consignees will be used as necessary to facilitate contractual agreements and/or Angolan regulations.
- 2) No exports will be inimical to the common defense and security of the United States.
- 3) When exporting from the USA, written permission will be obtained from the Competent Authority of the destination country as listed in the IAEA National Competent Authority List (NCAL) in the form of a license, permit, or "No Objection Certificate" (NOC), as applicable, as specified in 10 CFR 110.32(g)(2)&(3).
- 4) Imports from Angola into the USA will be made under the general license provision of 10 CFR §110.27(a).

(further details can be found on NRC Form 7)

In correspondence with Stephen Baker of OIP, as Angola is listed as a Restricted Destination in 10 CFR §110.29, this application will require Executive Branch for the export of Appendix P, Category 2 materials as per 10 CFR §110.41(a)(9). Therefore, as per 10 CFR §170.31(15.K), the fee for such an application is $8,900. Please find NRC Form 629 authorizing a payment by credit card for this amount.

If you have any questions related to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.
