Dear Secretary,

The NRC should reject the three petitions for rulemaking cited in the subject line out of hand. The agency should not even have accepted them for public comment in the first place, as they are frivolous and based on unsound science.

If, in a public, controlled, verifiable manner, the petitioners swallow or inhale small doses of a cesium/strontium/radioiodine blend daily for many months, with an contract that they will continue to do so as long as they live, only then should their absurd request be given the benefit of competing against the vast body of work which has found that there is no safe dose of radiation.
