NRC Public Meeting in Brewster, Mass., October 7 to Discuss Potential Regulatory Changes for Research and Test Reactors

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission will hold a public meeting Oct. 7 in Brewster, Mass., to discuss potential changes to regulations for research and test reactors.

The meeting will be held concurrently with the 2015 annual conference of the National Organization of Test, Research, and Training Reactors. The meeting will provide a forum for the public to ask questions and provide informal comments about proposed changes aimed at enhancing the effectiveness and efficiency of NRC regulations on research and test reactors.

The NRC meeting will be held at the Ocean Edge Resort and Golf Club, 2907 Main St., in Brewster, from 1-5 p.m.

For more information or if you need a reasonable accommodation to participate in the meeting, please notify Duane Hardesty by phone at 301-415-3724, or by email at Duane.Hardesty@nrc.gov.

The NRC meeting will be available through a webcast and through a teleconference. Details will be available in the meeting notice on the NRC's Public Meetings webpage.
