General Comment

That the NRC is considering dumping the LNT model, and adopting the quack "radiation hormesis" theory of the quack scientist, Dr. T.D. Luckey, shows just how sick the exercise of democracy has become in the USA. That the NRC is considering risking the health and life of all Americans just to appease the nuclear industry and using a quack theory in order to justify it is a great disgrace. Does the NRC want to become just as irresponsible as the Japanese government has been over Fukushima?
