General Comment

I cannot believe you dolts are trying to modify the truth that there is NO safe limit of radiation. The nuclear power nuts just cant see they are killing the planet. They can't even handle the waste they generate now. Have you guys seen what is happening in the Pacific? The place is dieing before our eyes and you guys won't even look at the big picture. Fukushima is to blame for a steady increase to the background radiation. The guys in charge are lieing to you. More radiation is just that, more radiation. We need to start shutting nuclear down until the can safely contain ALL the radiation they manufacture. You should be looking at how to restrict them more, not how to cave into them and their money. time for you to grow a pair and say NO MORE is better!
