In the Matter of

FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

(Turkey Point Nuclear Generating, Units 3 and 4)

Docket Nos. 50-250-LA and 50-251-LA

ASLBP No. 15-935-02-LA-BD01

October 19, 2015

ORDER

(Granting Request for Extension of Time)

On October 15, 2015, the NRC Staff filed an unopposed motion requesting an eleven day extension of time to file their written testimony, exhibits, and statement of position.<sup>1</sup> The NRC Staff assert that the extension is necessary because Citizens Allied for Safe Energy, Inc. (CASE) was delayed in submitting attachments that exceeded the file size limit for the NRC email system.<sup>2</sup> In the same motion, Florida Power & Light (FPL) also requests the same eleven day extension “for the sake of efficiency and uniformity.”<sup>3</sup>

For good cause shown, the motion is granted. Moreover, in light of the difficulties that CASE has encountered with the NRC email and electronic filing system, the Board will also accept as timely any initial statements of position and written testimony (including exhibits and attachments) filed by October 20, 2015. The NRC Staff’s and FPL’s written testimony, exhibits,

<sup>3</sup> Id. at 4. CASE, the intervenor in this license amendment proceeding, “is amenable to a common date being established for both the Staff’s and FPL’s filings.” Id.

and statements of position are now due no later than November 10, 2015. Accordingly, all other subsequent filing deadlines will be shifted forward by eleven days, as shown on this chart:

Event	Date
Initial Statement of Position and Written Testimony from CASE	October 20, 2015
Initial Statements of Position and Written Testimony from NRC Staff and FPL	November 10, 2015
CASE's Rebuttal Statement of Position and Written Testimony	December 1, 2015
Motion in Limine/Motions to Strike	December 15, 2015
Proposed Questions to the Board	December 22, 2015
Motions for Cross-Examination	December 22, 2015

However, consistent with the Initial Scheduling Order,<sup>4</sup> the above extension will not change the Board's plan to hold an evidentiary hearing during the week of January 11, 2016. No other extensions will be granted absent good cause shown.

It is so ORDERED.
