General Comment

The National Academy of Sciences in Washington DC, has stated, "Any dose of radiation, no matter how small, can induce cancer."

So, why are you trying to change the limit to allow for increased exposure to radioactivity? Do you intend to expose American citizens to this KNOWN RISK FOR CANCER?

This would open you to the charge of being an ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT to MURDER.

Have you no shame? No moral sense at all?

Don't you even care about your OWN CHILDREN?
