General Comment

Having lived through the entire nuclear age, I have to say that the Linear No-Threshold Model represents a level of insanity

I could never have suspected human beings to be capable of. I did not believe that even the NRC could be guilty of such a lack of responsibility, not only toward those now alive, but to those who will come after this present generation.

From the AEC's beginnings to the present moment, now dominated by the NRC, Americans have indulged in a level of fantasy on all things nuclear that, if we have descendants, they will look back at us in very much the same way we now look back on the psychotic behaviors of Nazi Germany.

The NRC absolutely must NOT ADOPT A NO-THRESHOLD MODEL on radiation.
