

16.0 Technical Specifications

The information in this section of the reference ABWR DCD, including all subsections, is incorporated by reference with departures and site-specific supplements.

The Departures Report provides a list of the departures taken against the Technical Specifications.

The Technical Specifications are maintained as a separate document and are issued as part of the Combined License.

