Dear Ms. Villar:

This letter serves as formal notification that the American Red Cross is requesting termination of its NRC license at the San Juan, PR facility located on the grounds of the Rio Piedras Medical Center. The facility ceased irradiation of blood products on November 1, 2015 and subsequently decommissioned the device. The device remains on the property while waiting for removal; however, the security assets and protocols remain in place.

Please let us know if you require any clarification on the matter contained herein or require additional information.

Sincerely,

David Angus Reeve
