Course Descriptions

- Supervisory Development 1: Fundamentals

Overview

Every Federal Agency relies on frontline management to get the job done. Though professions vary greatly across the Federal government, the responsibilities of the frontline supervisor do not. Every Federal supervisor needs to know how to implement an effective human resource and performance management process to achieve high performance. This course delivers the fundamental skills supervisors need to be successful.

This course can be combined with the Supervisory Development Seminar 2 for a two-week immersion experience to expand these fundamentals into a foundation for great leadership.

How You Will Benefit

- Be able to navigate the Federal human resource management system and differentiate appropriate personnel actions to recruit, hire and retain employees in the Federal workplace
- Implement effective performance management practices that set expectations and encourage effective performance
- Gain the skills, behavior and attitudes that define the successful supervisor
- Learn and practice tools for effectively communicating expectations to employees
- Write performance standards that are measurable and motivate employees to succeed

Who Should Attend

New supervisors and experienced supervisors who have not completed formal supervisory training, and those transitioning to Federal civil service from the military or private sector.

- Supervisory Development 2: Learning to Lead

Overview

Effective government managers need to supervise and lead to be successful. This course will develop your capacity to move employees from performance compliance to commitment for excellence. You will gain valuable insights into workplace motivation and employee engagement and adapt skills based on these insights into your leadership approach. This course can be combined with Supervisory Development I: Fundamentals for a two-week long that will integrate leadership with the nuts and bolts of supervision. When taken together, the weeks do not have to run consecutively.

How You Will Benefit

- Understand the different ways people learn, think and conceptualize and modify your style in the interest of working most effectively with others
- Learn strategies to shift from impasse, to resolution, to transformation in workplace conflicts
- Explore the concepts of employee motivation and engagement
- Network and learn from peers in other federal agencies facing the leadership and supervision challenge.
- Apply and practice these skills to real workplace scenarios and develop strategies for applying learning to the workplace

Who Should Attend

New frontline supervisors and existing supervisors who have not yet completed formal leadership development. Frontline supervisors who want to refresh their understanding and refine their approach to leadership. Individuals with supervisory functions will also benefit from this course.
