
Proposed Merger of NRO and NRR

John Monninger
July 19, 2016

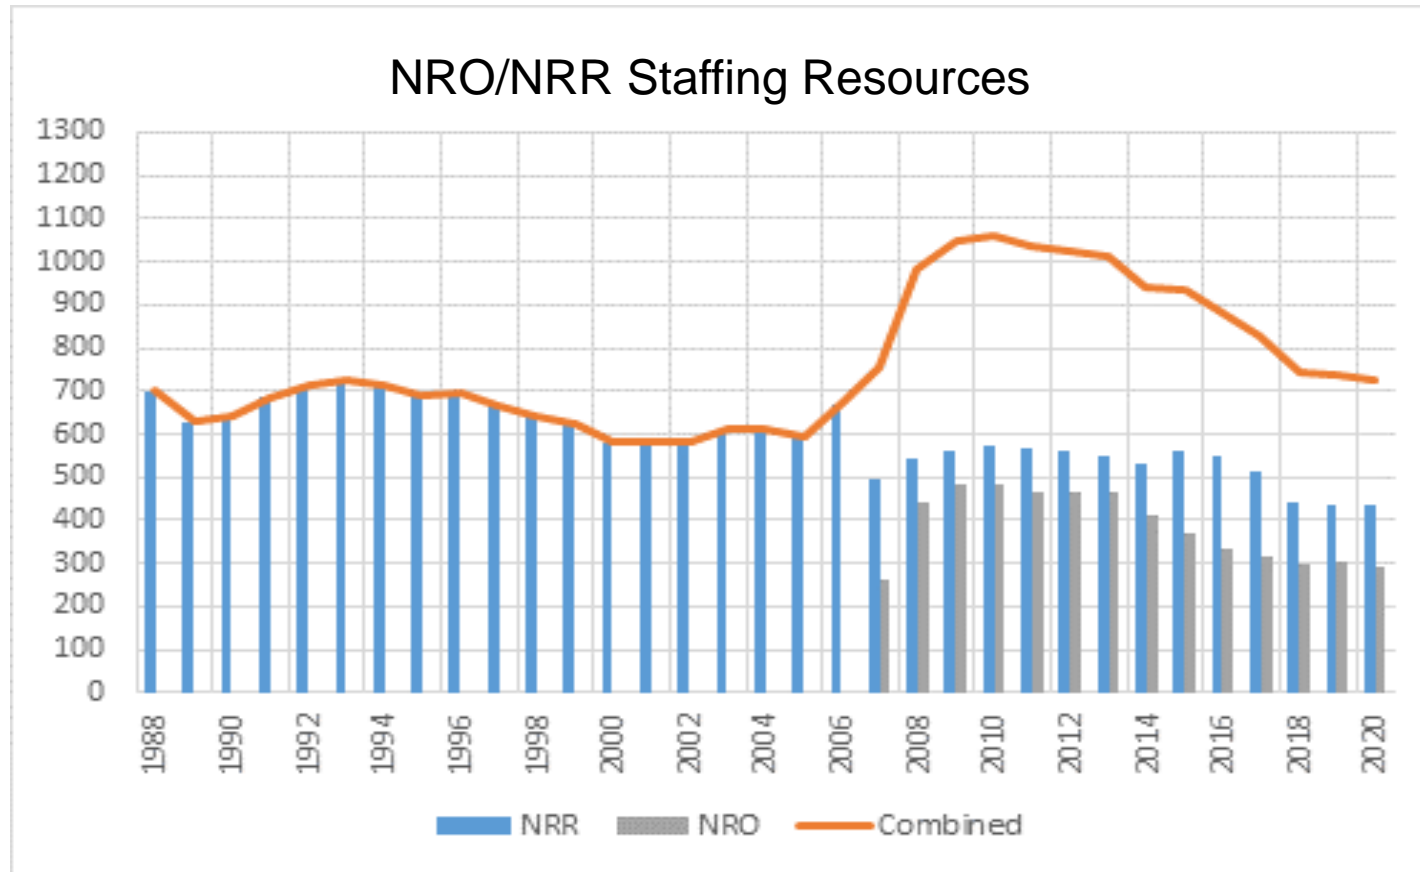

Proposed Merger of NRR/NRO

- Project AIM recommendation (SECY-15-0015)
- Proposal (SECY-16-0075) sent to the Commission on June 8
 - Provides the business case and transition plan
- Commission decision forthcoming

Proposal's Key Points

- Timing of merger based on workload
- Bridging activities should start now
- Merger compliments in-process initiatives
 - Other Project AIM activities
 - Process improvements

Benefits of Merger

- Organizational agility
- Improved timeliness
- Consolidated management and support functions
- Increased unity

Timing of Merger

- Integrated decision-making proposed
 - Continued safety & security
 - Regulatory issues being addressed
 - Policy issues under development
 - Project AIM initiative benefits achieved
 - Flat or declining workload
 - Projected resources comparable to past
 - Harmonization of practices & processes
 - Mature processes in place for new reactors

Transition Plan

- Recommends
 - Function-based organization
 - Leveraging current initiatives
 - Post-merger monitoring
- Identifies challenges and mitigation strategies
 - Workload prioritization
 - Regulatory differences
 - External stakeholders

Questions

