FORMERLY CMS-720-03-PL-00020, REVISION 0,
“QUALITY ASSURANCE PROGRAM DESCRIPTION,” AS A RESULT OF THE ACQUISITION OF CHICAGO BRIDGE & IRON BY WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC COMPANY (WESTINGHOUSE)
PROJECT NO. 700

By letter dated August 9, 2016, Westinghouse provided comments on the draft safety evaluation (SE) TR APP-GW-GAH-041, Revision 0, Formerly CMS-720-03-PL-00020, Revision 0, “Quality Assurance Program Description,” as a result of the acquisition of Chicago Bridge & Iron by Westinghouse. Westinghouse stated in the letter that there is no proprietary information in the draft SE for this TR; therefore, the draft of this SE will be made publicly available. The following are the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) staff’s resolution of these comments:

Draft SE comments for TR APP-GW-GAH-041, Revision 0,:

Westinghouse stated that “Line 26 includes incorrect reference to APP-GW-GAH-41, Rev 0. This should be CMS-720-03-PL-00020, Revision 0, per the contents of the referenced letter ML14108A084,” and “Lines 33 and 41 include incorrect reference to APP-GW-GAH-41. This reference should be APP-GW-GAH-041.”

NRC Resolution for Comment on Draft SE:

The NRC staff has reviewed the Westinghouse comments and agrees with these comments. The NRC staff has updated the titles of the mentioned documents.
