Ty,

I apologize for the delay in my response. I had planned on providing you a response by Thursday, November 17, but had trouble due to the IT issues and was out of the office on Friday. The Performance and Assessment Branch (PAB) has completed its acceptance review of NIST's triennial DFP submittal. Based on the information provided in the submission, PAB finds that the DFP submission includes sufficient detail for acceptance. PAB will move forward with the technical review and provide RAIs (if necessary) by 12/22/16.

Reggie

Hi Reggie,
Have you been able to evaluate for Acceptance?
