REQUESTED AMENDMENTS

6. Kingsbury is seeking a five-year extension to the December 31, 2016 expiration date for License No. XCOM1256/01 to allow for fulfillment of existing orders for bearing assemblies and spare parts, and future orders beyond the existing license expiration date.

10. Kingsbury previously requested approval to export a total of ten (10) bearing assemblies (5 - model CV-686/380 Z, and 5 - model RV-356 Z), and listed the total value of the components for export. Kingsbury's May 20, 2014 license amendment application requested approval to also export spare and replacement parts for those assemblies, and listed the respective dollar values for foreign intermediate consignees and for ultimate foreign consignees.

For this application to extend the XCOM1256/01 license, Kingsbury seeks approval to export an additional twelve (12) bearing assemblies (6 - model CV-686/381 Z, and 6 - model RV-356 Z), as well as spare and replacement parts thereto, through December 31, 2021. The total value of the assemblies and spare and replacement parts thereto exported between January 1, 2017 and December 31, 2021, would not exceed [PROPRIETARY: $ XXXXXXXXXX].

SUBJECT: EXPORT LICENSE AMENDMENT/RENEWAL REQUEST

Docket No. 11006071
License No. XCOM1256/01

Dear Deputy Director,

Kingsbury, Inc. seeks an amendment to its existing export license to extend its expiration date. Commensurate with the extension, Kingsbury also provides an update to the component quantity and estimated value declarations. Enclosed is a check in the amount of $2,700.00 as required by item K.5. (for minor license amendments) in the 2016 Schedule of Facility Fees at 10 C.F.R. § 170.21. "IMEX" is noted on the check, per Form 7 Instructions.

The dollar values of the items to be exported are confidential commercial information that is proprietary to Kingsbury, and I request that these values be withheld from public disclosure pursuant to 10 C.F.R. §§ 110.73(b) and 2.390.

I affirm that Kingsbury has held in confidence these dollar values, these values are of a type customarily held in confidence by Kingsbury, and there is a reasonable basis for keeping them confidential because of their commercial value. Disclosure of these dollar values is likely to cause substantial harm to Kingsbury because it reveals business proprietary information.

Please feel free to contact me directly with any questions regarding this application.

Sincerely,

Mick McCann
Vice President, Sales & Marketing

Enclosure
