Dear Mr. Furbush:

Your letter of January 13, 1982 to all parties in the Diablo Canyon proceeding submitted your proposed design verification program - Phase II and the qualifications of Stone & Webster as an additional independent contractor to participate in the Phase II program. You also requested a single comment period of 15 days on your Phase II submittal.

As you are aware, the Commission stipulated in its Order dated December 23, 1981 that the period for comments on the choice of companies and on your reverification program plan for Phase I as proposed in your submittal of December 4, 1981 should be extended until one week after a staff report on the investigation of the independence of Dr. R. L. Cloud has been placed in the Public Document Room in Washington, D.C. As you are also aware, the Commission has not yet reached a decision on this issue. Phase I of the staff report has been recently placed in the PDR. Phase II of the staff report has not yet been completed. In addition, the staff has recently identified several concerns to you regarding your Phase I program. (See January 8, 1982 Meeting Agenda items and letter from D. G. Eisenhut to M. H. Furbush dated January , 1982).

In recognition of these circumstances, we have determined that the comment period for your Phase II submittal of January 13, 1982 should not start earlier than the date the comment period on Phase I ends nor later than the Commission's decision regarding the qualifications and independence of your Phase I contractors and approval of your Phase I program.

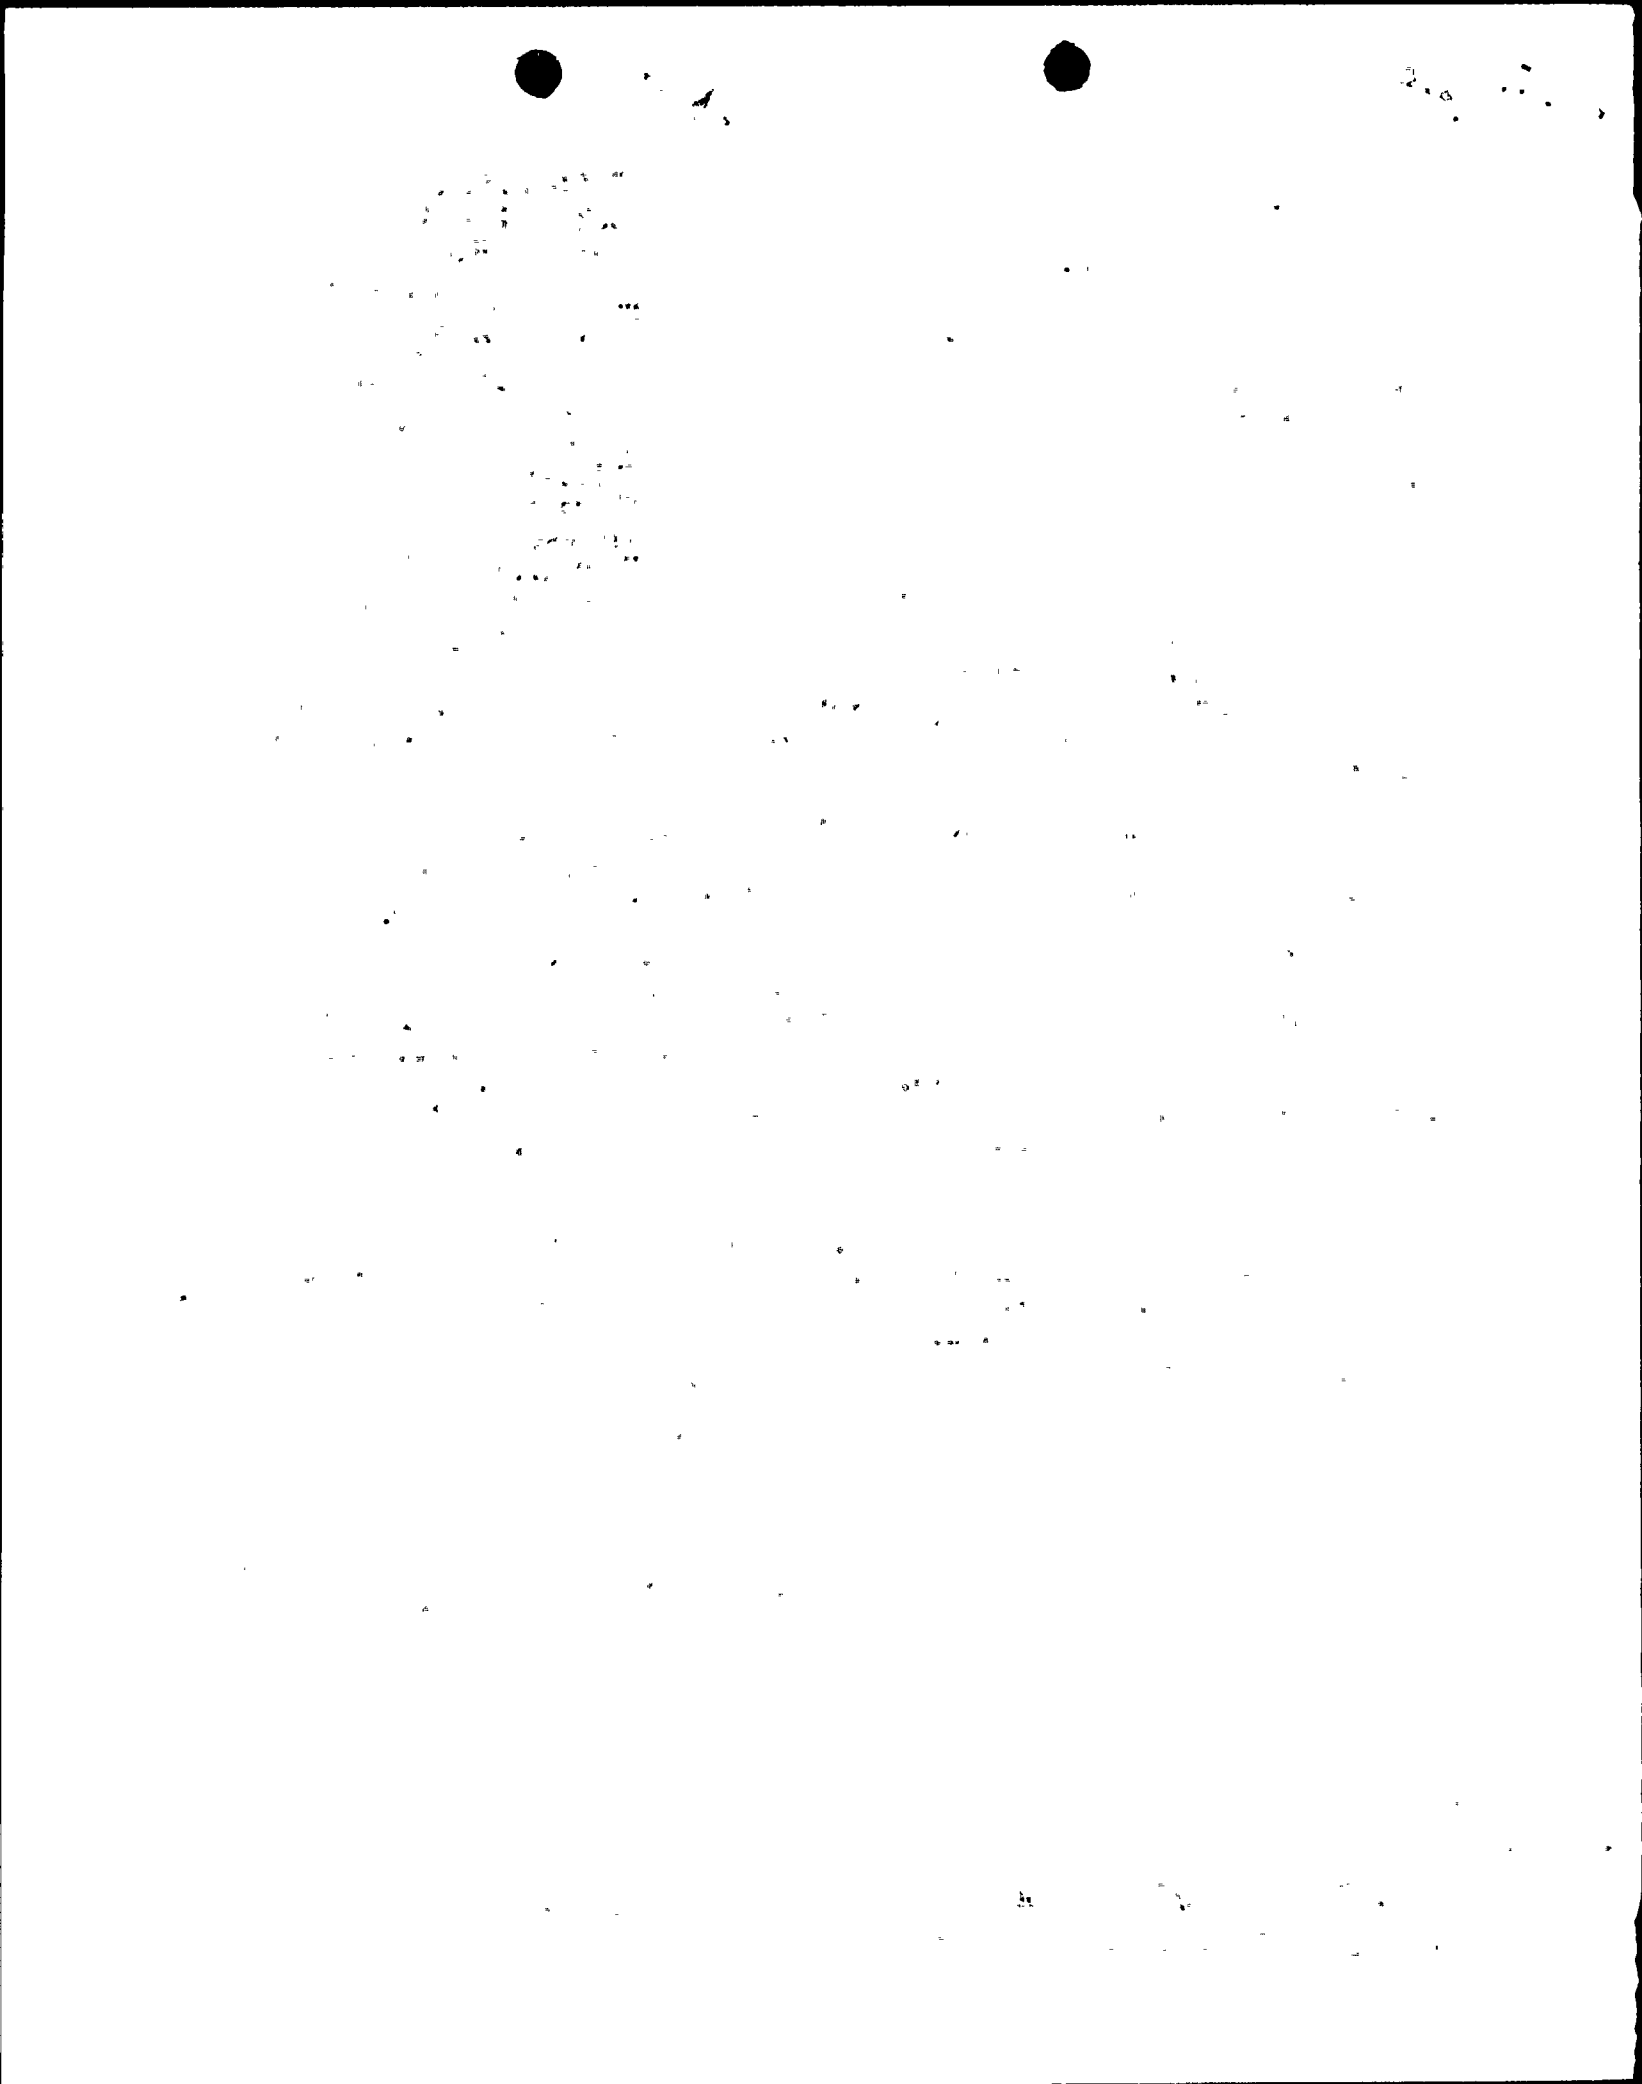

Sincerely;

Dear Mr. Furbush:

Your letter of January 13, 1982 to all parties in the Diablo Canyon proceeding submitted your proposed design verification program - Phase II and the qualifications of Stone & Webster as an additional independent contractor to participate in the Phase II program. You also requested a single comment period of 15 days on your Phase II submittal.

As you are aware, the Commission stipulated in its Order dated December 23, 1981 that the period for comments on the choice of companies and on your reverification program plan for Phase I as proposed in your submittal of December 4, 1981 should be extended until one week after a staff report on the investigation of the independence of Dr. R. Furbush dated January 28, 1982).

In recognition of these circumstances, it appears reasonable that the comment period for your Phase II submittal of January 13, 1982 should not start earlier than the date the comment period on Phase I ends nor later than the Commission's decision regarding the qualifications and independence of your Phase I contractors and approval of your Phase I program. We will inform all parties of the comment period for your Phase II Reverification Program at a later date.
