---

Ray,

I received the letter of credit today. The original is in a safe with the financial assurance staff. John Tappert will have to sign the document; he is away from the office until Monday, October 31st. I would expect him to sign it shortly after then. In the meantime, the letter will be reviewed.

As discussed, I will send the bank that Westinghouse uses and you a scanned version of the signed letter of credit.

IMPORTANT: I need a revised Schedule A of the Standby Trust Agreement.

Regards.
