General Comment

Notice of intent to testify at a special 301 hearing"
And statements of beneficial ownership

Intellectual property rights must be protected. If a person contacted the librarian of congress in an attempt to claim ownership of a works that action must be recognized and copyright protection must be granted. Certain situations must be handled responsibly by the parties involved who share the same interest. Movies,pictures,mask works ,music, may be valuable and private, and under all circumstances upon request the holder of the property shall be granted copyright protection. The intelligence committee and the holder of the works must come to an agreement privately to discuss fair royalty payments. The music and videos are priceless, and the clinical data historical. People deserve a fair opportunity to receive what they are entitled and shouldn't be forced to visit every law office in the state.

In good faith

Sincerely

Aaron
