Re: Amended and Restated Standby Trust Agreement dated March 15, 2012 by and between Cardinal Health 414, LLC ("Grantor") and JPMorgan Chase Bank, NA as Trustee (the "Trust Agreement") related to the following facilities: (i) 131 East Hartland St., East Hartford, Connecticut with U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission License Number 34-32780-02; (ii) c/o Michigan State University, 138 Service Road, Suite E127, East Lansing, Michigan; and (iii) 10718 Trenton Avenue, Saint Louis, Missouri. The United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission is the "Beneficiary" of the Trust Agreement.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Pursuant to Section 13 of the Trust Agreement, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as trustee of the above referenced account has been terminated. Cardinal Health 414, LLC has selected US Bank N.A. to serve as successor to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and U.S. Bank N.A. has accepted the appointment, pursuant to the attached letter dated February 6, 2017. All holdings, if any, have been turned over to the successor trustee.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact the new trustee as shown in the address above. If you have any questions for us, please call me at 713-216-6079 or Paula Dickson at 713-216-5882.

Sincerely,

Greg Campbell

SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE NOTIFICATION

February 6, 2017

U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, DC 20555-0001

Re: Standby Trust Agreement ("Agreement") dated March 15, 2012 by and between Cardinal Health 414, LLC ("Grantor") and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association ("Trustee").

As you know, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission required Grantor to provide assurance that funds would be available for required decommissioning activities at Grantor's facility located at 131 East Hartland St., East Hartford, CT 06108 and 10718 Trenton Ave. St Louis, MS 63132. Grantor elected to use a surety bond of such financial assurance and created a standby trust to be used for receipt of such payment.

The Trustee has provided notice of resignation under the Agreement. Grantor has appointed U.S. Bank National Association ("Successor Trustee") to serve as successor Trustee under the Agreement. This is to serve as notice that the Successor Trustee will assume administration of the standby trust effective March 8, 2017.
