ECNP SUPPLEMENT TO ADDITIONAL RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES

In its March 27, 1980, Memorandum, the Board cites at p. 4 an ECNP "February 11, 1980 response to the Applicants' February 4, 1980 motion," and states that ECNP should affirm that it wishes to include this response as part of its answer. Subsequent interchanges have clarified that the Board was referring to ECNP's February 18, 1980, filing. Had the ECNP Intervenor, puzzled as we were by the Board's reference to a filing of which we had no knowledge, been skilled in the legal wordings appropriate to such a situation, these Intervenor might have been spared the time and cost of yet another set of papers to the parties; it might also be observed that this extra filing results from an error not of our making. The answer to the Board's directive in its March 27, 1980, Memorandum is, so far as we can interpret its meaning, yes, ECNP does intend that this response to Interrogatories pertaining to Contention 4 be included as part of its answer.

Respectfully submitted,

Judith H. Johnsrud
