Docket Nos.: 50-387

Mr. Harold W. Keiser
Vice President
Nuclear Operations
Pennsylvania Power and Light Company
2 North Ninth Street
Allentown, Pennsylvania 18101

Dear Mr. Keiser:

SUBJECT: CORRECTED TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION PAGE FOR SUSQUEHANNA STEAM
ELECTRIC STATION - UNIT 1

Amendment No. 64 to the Technical Specifications for Susquehanna Steam Electric Station (SSES) Unit 1 was issued on May 7, 1987. Pages xxii, 3/4 2-5, 3/4 2-10, and B 3/4 2-1 incorporated in that amendment were incorrect, because they did not reflect changes approved in Amendment No. 57. Page 3/4 2-7 was not included as an overleaf page. Please insert in the Susquehanna Unit 1 Technical Specifications pages xxii, 3/4 2-5, 3/4 2-7, 3/4 2-10, and B 3/4 2-1.

We regret any inconvenience caused by the error.

Sincerely,

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text also mentions that proper record-keeping is crucial for identifying trends and anomalies in the data.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the role of internal controls in preventing fraud and errors. It describes how a well-designed system of internal controls can help to minimize the risk of misstatements and ensure that the organization's assets are protected. The text highlights the need for a strong culture of ethics and transparency within the organization.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges of managing financial data in a complex and rapidly changing environment. It discusses the importance of using modern technology and software solutions to streamline data collection and analysis. The text also notes that ongoing training and development for staff are essential for staying up-to-date with the latest best practices.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits and reviews. It explains that these activities are necessary to verify the accuracy of the financial records and to identify any areas where improvements can be made. The text also mentions that audits can help to build confidence among stakeholders and ensure compliance with relevant regulations.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and communication. It explains that providing clear and timely information to all stakeholders is essential for building trust and ensuring the long-term success of the organization. The text also notes that effective communication is key to implementing any new initiatives or changes in the organization.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of continuous improvement. It explains that organizations should regularly evaluate their performance and seek ways to optimize their processes and systems. The text also mentions that a focus on innovation and research and development can help to drive growth and create a competitive advantage.
