ATTACHMENT

- 1) Update references from 3.10.D to 3.10.I and 3.10.E to 3.10.J.

When Reference (a) was transmitted, Sections 3.10.D and 3.10.E were in developmental stages. Upon completion, the above changes were necessary to achieve full consistency to STS format. This change is administrative in nature and does not alter the original intent of the Reference (a) submittal.

- 2) In proposed Surveillance Requirement 4.4.A.2.b, change the wording to "... 14% by weight to 16.5% by weight ..." for Dresden and Quad Cities.

This change is administrative in nature and has been incorporated to be consistent to the terminology used in proposed Figure 3.4.A-1.

- 3) STS Surveillance Requirement 4.1.5.d.4 has not been adopted. Dresden and Quad Cities do not have this requirement in their current Technical Specifications. Dresden and Quad Cities have adopted the daily surveillance requirement from STS 4.1.5.a.1 that demonstrates the proper temperature requirements of the sodium pentaborate solution. The daily surveillance testing of the solution temperature provides an adequate check on the capability of the storage tank heaters to maintain solution temperature and therefore, the 18 month test of the tank heaters has not been adopted.

For both Item 1 and 2 above, the revisions to Page 3/4.4-1 for both Dresden and Quad Cities are attached.
