SUBJECT: REACTOR VESSEL INTEGRITY DATABASE

Dear Mr. Farrar:

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) issued Administrative Letter 95-03, "Availability of Reactor Vessel Integrity Database," informing all holders of operating licenses for nuclear power reactors that the Reactor Vessel Integrity Database (RVID) was available from the NRC upon written request. As per my August 10, 1995, telephone conversation with Denise Saccomando, of your staff, I am providing you with a copy of the RVID and the RVID operations manual (in hard copy and in electronic form (diskettes)). Therefore, it is not necessary for Commonwealth Edison Company to submit a written request concerning this issue.

Your comments or suggestions regarding the RVID should be sent to:
