Docket No. 50-335
Resistance Temperature Detector Testing

Florida Power & Light has reviewed your letter dated August 28, 1981 concerning time response testing for resistance temperature detectors (RTDs). The St. Lucie Plant has just recently completed some RTD testing and it is our intention to review the results of this recent testing prior to making a request for Technical Specification change. We expect to complete this review and, if applicable, to submit a request for Technical Specirication changes by March 1, 1982.

Very truly yours,
