Dear Mr. Ziemann:

In a letter to you dated May 28, 1975 concerning this same subject, we indicated our plans to submit a report describing the design of an air containment atmosphere dilution (ACAD) system by August 1, 1975. Due to delays in preparation, this report is now expected to be submitted in September 1975.

If further schedule changes for this report occur, you will be notified promptly.

Very truly yours,

J. S. Abel
