

CHAIRMAN Resource

From: Tom Gurdziel <tgurdziel@twcny.rr.com>
Sent: Tuesday, October 03, 2017 8:29 AM
To: CHAIRMAN Resource
Cc: Bridget Frymire
Subject: [External_Sender] Aging of Diesel Fuel Stored on Site

Good morning,

I was reading recommendations last night on the Internet about diesel fuel life. The recommendation (that I saw) requires water removal, the addition of an additive and maybe something else for diesel fuel to be stored up to a little more than one year.

Are the plants including diesel fuel in their aging programs?

Thank you,

Tom Gurdziel

Virus-free. www.avast.com