Figure 1 shows a series of nine line drawings of a person, arranged in a 3x3 grid. The drawings represent the progression of a child's drawing from age 3 to age 12. The top row shows a simple stick figure with a circle for a head and a vertical line for a body. The middle row shows a more developed figure with a head, torso, and limbs. The bottom row shows a highly detailed figure with facial features, clothing, and a full body. The drawings are labeled with numbers 1 through 9, indicating the age of the child who drew them.
