1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in the new administration.

Dear Sir:

This letter is a request to have my name dropped from the notice list in matters affecting the Palo Verde Nuclear Generating Station. My earlier concerns have been satisfied and there is no reason to continue sending me copies of the voluminous and costly notices.

I have enclosed copies of the notices recently recieved.

If farther action is required, please notify me.

Thank You,
Ronald Rayner
