Gentlemen:

During a review of data used to assemble the statistical report of exposures as required by 10CFR20.407(a)(2) and 10CFR20.407(b) for the year 1978 (transmitted to you previously by letter dated March 5, 1979) it became apparent that there may have been one or more errors committed in the assembly of the data. A reanalysis of the data has shown slight differences in the number of individuals monitored as well as the distribution of the doses reported as follows:

The total number of individuals for whom monitoring was required by 10CFR20.202(a) during the calendar year 1978 was 1777.

The results of the monitoring performed were distributed as follows:

No measureable exposure	979
