Gentlemen:

SUBJECT: NOTICE OF VIOLATION AND NOTICE OF DEVIATION
(NRC INSPECTION REPORT NOS. 50-250/86-24 AND 50-251/86-24)

This refers to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) inspection conducted by Messrs. D. P. Falconer and S. D. Stadler on April 3-6 and April 16-18, 1986. The inspection included a review of activities authorized for your Turkey Point facility. At the conclusion of the inspection, the findings were discussed with those members of your staff identified in the enclosed inspection report.

Areas examined during the inspection are identified in the report. Within these areas, the inspection consisted of selective examinations of procedures and representative records, interviews with personnel, and observation of activities in progress.

The inspection findings indicate that certain activities appeared to violate NRC requirements and other activities appeared to deviate from commitments to the NRC. The violation and deviation, with pertinent references and elements to be included in your response, are described in the enclosed Notices.

Your attention is invited to an unresolved item identified in the inspection report. This matter will be pursued during future inspections.

The enclosed Inspection Report documents oral commitments made by a licensee representative and discussed in the exit interview. If your understanding of these commitments differs from the report statements, please inform this office promptly.

In accordance with Section 2.790 of the NRC's "Rules of Practice," Part 2, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, a copy of this letter and its enclosures will be placed in the NRC Public Document Room.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the sampling techniques employed and the statistical tests used to evaluate the results.

3. The third part of the document provides a comprehensive overview of the findings of the study. It discusses the implications of the results and offers recommendations for future research. The findings indicate that there is a significant correlation between the variables studied, and that the proposed model appears to be a valid representation of the underlying process.

4. The final part of the document concludes the study and summarizes the key points. It reiterates the importance of the research and expresses the hope that the findings will be useful to other researchers in the field.
