SUBJECT: OPERATOR REQUALIFICATION EXAMINATIONS AT TURKEY POINT

During the weeks of March 13 and 20, 1989, the NRC administered requalification examinations to 24 licensed operators at the Turkey Point plant. Preliminary results are that at least 3 of 6 crews and 11 of 24 individuals have failed the exams. FPL has agreed to shut down Unit 3 while restructuring the operating crews with only those personnel who have recently demonstrated competence to the NRC. Additionally, they have agreed to conduct, prior to unit startup, an assessment of these crews on the simulator to ensure that the restructured crew complement performs effectively. The NRC will observe these assessments prior to unit startup. A meeting was held between the NRC and the licensee on March 29, 1989, and a letter issued on March 30, 1989, confirming the licensee's compensatory actions. Unit 3 was shut down on the evening of March 29, 1989. Unit 4 is currently in a refueling outage.

The State of Florida has been informed.

Media interest has been shown.
